It is a pity to note the way the Trust Board allotted the site to Sri D.R. Chennareddi & Bros & Sists. If the additional site measuring 69 7/9 Sq. yds had not been allotted to them the entire adjacent site measuring 34 1/4 + 32 1/2 X 80 could have been allotted to someone else at a higher rate. ~~This was done~~ Since the allotment has already been made & approved & the Govt the additional site of land now asked for may be allotted as recommended & the Trust Board.

In view of the position explained on the page there is no way except to approve the resolution of the Board as the Board's list of lands now asked for & the applicant's are ~~is very small~~ cannot be used for any other purpose.

Seen. This embodies in the letter to the Govt.

12 In any case, while approval may be given to allotment of this price gland, there appears to be no reason to agree to the proposed reduction in value. From the Collection figures below, it is clear that the upset price of Rs 5/- originally fixed was itself a concession. It was further reduced to Rs 4/- per sq. yard. It would be too much to go on reducing the rate on each representation. This should be definitely discouraged & CITB advised not to make such reductions if their schemes are to be self supporting.
